

Washington, DC - On Tuesday, August 17, Rep. Ben Ray Luján will bring together elected officials, state health care and treatment providers, members of the community, and law enforcement to discuss how to fight substance abuse in the community. The summit will take place in Espanola, NM, and it will include a panel discussion followed by an open forum with community members.

What: Rep. Luján to Hold Summit on Substance Abuse, Drug Control in Espanola

When: Tuesday, August 17, 2010 from 2:00 to 4:30 pm (MT)

Where: Carlos Vigil Middle School Auditorium, 1260 Johnny Roybal Industrial Park Road, Espanola, NM